THEOLOGY & RELIGION ESSAY >>

THE BEST ENTRY WILL RECEIVE £100 in vouchers

At the Department of Theology & Religion at the University of Exeter, we want to hear your ideas about religion!

We're inviting A-Level, IB, BTEC and GCSE students in any subject to send us a response to one of the following big questions:

•What role should religion play in a post-Covid world?

•Would the world be better off without religion? Answer with reference to world events 2020-2021 (Black Lives Matter; Pandemic; Economic Crash; Free School Dinners/ Foodbanks; American Elections; Climate Change)

•Should everyone have to study religion at school? Answer with reference to world events 2020-2021 (Black Lives Matter; Pandemic; Economic Crash; Free School Dinners/ Foodbanks; American Elections; Climate Change)

There will be three prizes. One for the best standard essay (1000 words), one for the best creative writing piece (1000 words), and one for the best video entry (6-7 minutes).

Lecturers from the Department of Theology and Religion will be judging your entries.

The best entry for each category will receive £100 in vouchers.

To enter, simply email your piece to outreach@exeter.ac.uk Be sure to include your name, age, school, details of the qualifications you are studying, and the name of a teacher who knows you are entering. The deadline for entries is 18th April 2021. Winners will be announced in May 2021.
