

Donor List 2005–2006

Donor List 2005–2006

On behalf of everyone at the University of Exeter, I would like to take this opportunity to thank those who donated so generously to the University during 2005/06. As Vice-Chancellor and an Annual Fund donor, I am pleased to see so many names listed. The Annual Fund has had its most successful year to date with over 1,700 alumni, parents and other friends giving over £200,000. Your support is already making a huge difference to many of our students. Due to continuing pressures on funding for higher education, and the need for the University to raise funds from non-governmental sources, we have invested further in the Development and Alumni Relations office over the past year. Your gifts encourage us to believe that those who know the University best will support us to maintain our position as one of the UK's top universities. I hope that you will continue to support the University with a regular gift and help us to build for our future.

Steve Smith

Professor Steve Smith
Vice Chancellor

The University gratefully acknowledges the generous support of the following individuals, companies, trusts and foundations who have made donations to the University between August 1 2005 and July 31 2006. We are also grateful to those benefactors who have requested anonymity for their gifts, to those who gave through payroll giving, and to those who have told us that they have made a bequest to the Foundation in their Wills. We have made every effort to record your name correctly. If there are any errors please do tell us so that we can correct them.

"If it wasn't for my time at Exeter it is unlikely that I'd have the career and life that I have today – it was the springboard I needed – both academically and in terms of my personal development. I want to make sure that future students benefit from the 'Exeter Experience' that I received. A donation not only provides the University with the funds it needs, but is a signal to current and future students that alumni recognise the benefits of Exeter University to them and why it is so worthwhile being at Exeter." "I have greatly appreciated the Foundation's support. I can categorically state that without the incentive of financial support, I would not have been able to realise my career aspirations. Nobody in my extended family has ever had the opportunity of higher education and with the tutors' help I'm determined to obtain a degree and go on to worthwhile employment in a field related to my studies." "I was one of the lucky undergraduates who went to Exeter in the early 1960s. We may have pre-dated the hippy period for which the 1960s are now renowned, but the very fortunate few (compared with today's numbers) received a wonderful education and enjoyed the best three years of our lives. Those fortunate enough to obtain an Exeter degree have benefited ever since, both at work and in our continuing friendships, and I will forever be indebted to the University and its staff. That is why I make a modest annual gift to the University, and plan to leave a modest bequest in my will, and I urge all alumni to do the same." Chris Heaps (Law, 1964)

"For me making a donation to the Annual Fund is about giving something back to the University and to other students. I am in a financially free position, and this is partly due to Exeter University. I feel that giving some support to the University will help it stay at the leading edge so I can stay proud of attending a top class University. It makes sense to help it stay there. Also by supporting some students we help keep the privilege of University open to more and that gives me a good feeling." Andrew Phillips (Computer Science, 1991)
