Event Exeter represents the University of Exeter's portfolio of venues which together form the South West's largest academic conference venue.

UNIVERSITY OF EXETER
Campus Services

Set in the heart of Devon, Exeter is a vibrant, cosmopolitan city steeped in history. The recent completion of the new Princesshay shopping complex has given the city a contemporary modern feel and created a buzz within the city centre.

The University itself has two campuses, both of which are located just a 10 minute walk from the city centre and have superb transport links to both Exeter St David's and Exeter Central railway stations, the M5 motorway and Exeter's International Airport.

Whatever event you are planning to hold, be it a large residential conference, small boardroom meeting, private function, group break or simply a holiday in the South West, Event Exeter really is your complete venue solution.

With over 30 years of conference experience the team at Event Exeter take pride in listening to our clients' needs and ensure support and guidance is given every step of the way, in order to make your event a successful one.

We look forward to welcoming you to Exeter.

completely conferences

Event Exeter offer a flexible range of meeting and exhibition facilities which include large flat floored areas, modern tiered lecture theatres and spacious boardroom facilities. The capacities of these areas range from 10-1400 delegates.

For large events the Great Hall complex seats up to 1400 delegates theatre style. With natural daylight, a fixed stage and excellent acoustics the Great Hall is a popular choice for large plenary sessions.

In addition, Newman Lecture Theatre A situated alongside the Peter Chalk Centre, the University's second largest conference suite, offers comfortable tiered seating for up to 350 delegates and is equipped with full multimedia facilities.

To complement the larger areas, a range of smaller seminar rooms are also available. Predominantly based within the Peter Chalk Centre, Queen's Building and Xfi Centre these smaller rooms often have internal moveable wall systems, designed to provide flexible meeting space.

Reed Hall is situated on the main Streatham Campus in beautiful surroundings and is Event Exeter's all year round conference centre with meeting rooms seating from 10-80 delegates. All rooms offer natural daylight, flexible seating arrangements and a relaxing learning environment.

With audio-visual technicians on site to manage or support any technical aspect, you can be assured your delegates will be well looked after.

completely catering

Event Exeter is renowned for fine dining and offers a choice of venues and catering options for breakfast meetings, conference catering, buffets, banquets, weddings and celebrations.

All of the catering provided by Event Exeter is created by a team of dedicated, fully trained chefs who understand that catering is a crucial element of any successful event. You can choose from our regionally sourced, imaginative menus which use the freshest of local ingredients, or tailor make your own. Should your guests have any special dietary requirements we have a range of suitable options to satisfy their needs and pride ourselves on attention to detail.

We offer a wide range of bars and social spaces located both close to meeting facilities and within accommodation areas, providing the perfect place to network.

To personalise your unique event and ensure it's success we can work closely with local partners to creatively transform your chosen venue, whatever the theme, be it a simple black tie event or a Hawaiian cocktail party. We will ensure every last detail is covered from the dressing of the room to the flower arrangements, table linen and decorations. Whatever you have in mind, we are always keen to discuss your ideas and help you make it an event to remember.

completely accommodation

Accommodation is available during the University's spring and summer vacations. If your event falls during the University term we will be happy to source local hotel accommodation at discounted rates for your guests. The University offers over 1400 bedrooms, the majority of which are en-suite. The accommodation consists of a variety of single, twin and double bedrooms with pricing to meet all budgets.

The accommodation itself is located on two separate campuses. The main Streatham Campus is set in 300 acres of woodlands and landscaped gardens and is recognised as one of the most beautiful and interesting botanical gardens of any British University. Facilities on campus include a theatre, supermarket, on-site heated outdoor swimming pool and bank. The St Luke's Campus offers a more compact site, set around an attractive lawned quadrangle. There are excellent sports facilities and free car parking on both campuses available to all residential guests.

All of our accommodation is within walking distance of our meeting facilities and many of our residences have fantastic panoramic views of Exeter and the Exe Valley. With dedicated teams working in all of our areas our staff are always on hand to answer your queries and to ensure your stay is an enjoyable one.

Our accommodation is perfect whether you are attending a conference, a sports group or simply wish to enjoy a short break in the South West.
