

With a History degree from the University of Exeter, you'll be able to:

- use critical reasoning and analytical skills, including problem solving and creative thinking
- conduct research using different types of tools, such as information and communications technology, and sources, demonstrating intellectual rigour throughout
- negotiate, question, summarise and construct an argument by selecting and ordering relevant evidence, and communicate findings in a structured, clear and persuasive manner
- discuss ideas in groups, accommodating different ideas and reaching agreement
- think objectively and approach problems and new situations with an open mind
- appreciate the different factors that influence the activities of groups and individuals in society

Where can your degree take you?

Skills, expertise and knowledge gained via a History degree are important if you want to pursue a career in teaching, museums and archives, and careers focusing on research skills.

A degree in History will also equip you with skills that will allow you to move into other areas of employment.

Here is a snapshot of the jobs, employers and further study programmes that our recent History students have progressed to soon after graduation.

Occupations

- Archives Assistant
- Historian
- Social Policy and Press Officer
- Medical Record Administrator
- Paralegal
- Charity Fund Raiser
- Fine Wine Trader
- Market Research Executive
- Parliamentary Assistant
- Graduate Recruitment Manager
- PR Executive
- Police Communications Advisor
- Business Developer
- Social Media Account Manager
- Journalist
- Corporate Finance Analyst
- Retail Management Graduate

Employers

- EY
- Elsevier
- National Audit Office
- CHICKS Tavistock
- Bank of England
- South West Water
- Deloitte LLP
- Ministry of Defence
- Creation Theatre Company
- Teach First
- Boots
- Waitrose
- Sky
- University of Oxford
- Pepsi Co

Further study

- MRES Economic and Social History
- MA Medieval History
- PG Dip Broadcast Journalism
- PGCE Secondary History
- MA Violence, Conflict and Development
- MA Museum and Public Heritage Management
- Graduate Diploma in Law
- MSc Global and Imperial History
- MA Magazine Journalism
- MA Naval History
- MSc Business and Management
- MSc European Politics