

Tremough Campus Culture Festival

In association with The Daphne du Maurier Festival
10.15am - 6.00pm,
Sunday 20th May 2012

University of Exeter, Tremough Campus
Penryn, Chapel Lecture Theatre

Ticket includes tea/coffee/drink

Full day £19

Half day (am or pm) £10

Student ticket £5

Tickets available from www.dumaurierfestival.co.uk
Telephone 01726 879500

For directions, visit www.exeter.ac.uk/visit/directions/cornwall

The University of Exeter
&Arts
Culture

University College
FALMOUTH

10.15am

Arrival and coffee, Lower Stannary

10.30 - 11.45am

Heritage, Innovation, Place and Creativity in Cornwall

A discussion between James Green, Director, Newlyn Gallery, Julia Twomlow, Director, The Leach Pottery, St Ives & Michael Bird, Art Historian.

12.00 - 1.00pm

Titanic - A costume-in-context presentation by History Wardrobe

Follow the dramatized story of fashion designer Lady Lucy Duff Gordon through events of the fatal night.

1.00 - 2.00pm

Lunch available for purchase in Lower Stannary, with pop-up poet Kym Martindale

2.00 - 3.00pm

Healthcare and Wellbeing - Can the ancient world help us?

Professors Nicky Britten & Chris Gill, University of Exeter, on ways the Greeks and Romans can help us improve our physical and psychological health.

3.00 - 3.30pm

Tea, Lower Stannary, with pop-up poet Kym Martindale

3.30 - 4.45pm

A Painter's Journey to Everest - An illustrated journey with Alan Cotton

Alan Cotton describes how he painted the world's highest mountain, on a recent trip to Everest with climber David Hempleman-Adams.

5.00 - 6.00pm

Complimentary drinks reception. Will Kaufman, Woody Guthrie - Hard Times and Hard Travellin'

For Woody Guthrie's centenary year, a live documentary setting his songs (Brother Can You Spare a Dime? and others) in the context of the American 1930s.

