

Having a face to face meeting?

Follow these good practices on preventing infection.

Ensure the windows are open if there is no mechanical air (look for signage on windows)

Gel hands before entering the meeting room

Use cleaning products to wipe down desk spaces

Use the space in the room effectively

Wipe down any shared equipment

Face coverings are recommended