

Pro Vice Chancellor's NHS Postgraduate Scholarship 2021/22

The University of Exeter Medical School is pleased to offer the Pro Vice Chancellor's NHS Postgraduate Scholarship, worth £5,000, to two NHS staff applying for one of our Masters programmes for 2021/22.

We are seeking to support individuals with a passion for their chosen field of study and an ambition to use their knowledge, training and skills to effect and ultimately lead progressive change.

You can apply for this award if you:

- are an NHS staff member; and
- already hold an offer to study an eligible full time Masters programme at the University of Exeter in the 2021/22 academic year.

These scholarships are available for the following eligible programmes only:

- MSc Advanced Clinical Practice
- MSc Clinical Education
- MSc Clinical Pharmacy
- MSc Environment and Human Health
- MSc Genomic Medicine
- MSc Health Data Science
- MSc Healthcare Leadership and Management
- MSc Health Research Methods
- MSc Sport and Exercise Medicine
- Master of Public Health \(MPH\)
- MSc by Research Medical Imaging
- MSc by Research Medical Studies

(MSc Extreme Medicine and PgCert Genomic Medicine (online) are not eligible.)

To apply for this scholarship, once you have received your offer, please complete the online application form via the Funding database entry for this award:

<https://www.exeter.ac.uk/studying/funding/award/?id=4092>

You will be required to answer the following three questions:

Q1: In no more than 500 words, what are your career ambitions and how have you used your studies, work experience and extra-curricular pursuits to date to pursue them?

Q2: In no more than 500 words, how will undertaking your proposed degree programme enhance your achievement of your ambitions?

Q3: In no more than 500 words, what makes you particularly deserving of a scholarship and how will it make a difference to you?

The deadline for applications for this scholarship is 1 August 2021 17:00 (GMT).

By applying for this scholarship you are agreeing to your personal details being shared with the scholarship panel including the Director of Operations, Director of Postgraduate Study and Student Recruitment and Admissions Manager (College of Medicine and Health).

Applicants for this scholarship will be notified of the outcome of their application within two weeks of the closing date. If you are offered an award then the offer email will explain how to accept it. Any queries regarding the award should be sent to CMH_Admissions@exeter.ac.uk.

This scholarship will be awarded as a reduction in tuition fees; it cannot be paid as cash or attributed to other charges such as accommodation fees. It will be automatically deducted from your first year tuition fees upon enrolment. If you choose to pay your tuition fees in instalments, the award will be deducted from the total annual tuition fee and the remaining balance split accordingly.

This award is for one year and is not recurrent for subsequent years of study.

You cannot normally receive more than one scholarship from the University of Exeter; if you are eligible for multiple scholarships you will be awarded whichever scholarship has the higher value. If your tuition fees will be financed by an external body (such as an overseas government or Chevening, Commonwealth or a partner University) with whom the University has a shared financing agreement this award may be invalidated or superseded with a different fee arrangement. It is your responsibility to inform us if you are in receipt of any external funding prior to enrolment; please send a soft copy of the award letter to admissions pg-ad@exeter.ac.uk.

If you defer your 2021/22 programme offer then your scholarship offer will be invalidated. In the event that you withdraw or interrupt your studies post enrolment then the University Finance regulations at that date will apply as regards any repayment or other requirements:
