

I want to tell the University about an incident of sexual misconduct

The Accused is a student of the University

WHO CAN I TALK TO?

Talk to a member of staff or the Students' Guild or use the Exeter Speaks Out anonymous reporting tool

DISCLOSE

You want to tell the University what has happened but you don't want formal action taken.

NOTE: this can remain anonymous however this could limit the help we can offer you.

REPORT

You want to tell the University what has happened and you want formal action to be taken.

NOTE: This cannot be anonymous. Action can only be taken against named registered students.

LEAD FOR SEXUAL MISCONDUCT IS INFORMED

If you choose to waive your anonymity: the Lead for Sexual Misconduct will meet with you to discuss how we can support you:

- * We can offer you wellbeing support
- * We can offer you support with your studies
- * We can offer you support with mitigation
- * We can offer you support with your accommodation, including a move if you are in University accommodation

If you want to take formal action

You will meet with a trained Investigating Officer. You can have a supporter with you for this meeting. The Investigating Officer will meet separately with the Accused Party to hear their explanation.

The Investigating Officer will notify you of the outcome of the investigation.

OUTCOME OF AN INVESTIGATION

No action can be taken - case closed.

A minor disciplinary breach occurred - decision made and case closed.

A Major Disciplinary Board will hear the case: decision made and case closed

REVIEW

If you are not happy with the outcome you can ask the University to review your case within 20 working days of receiving the outcome
