Start date – The start date of which you are claiming for.

Start time – The time your shift started.

Position – From the drop-down list choose the position that you are claiming for.

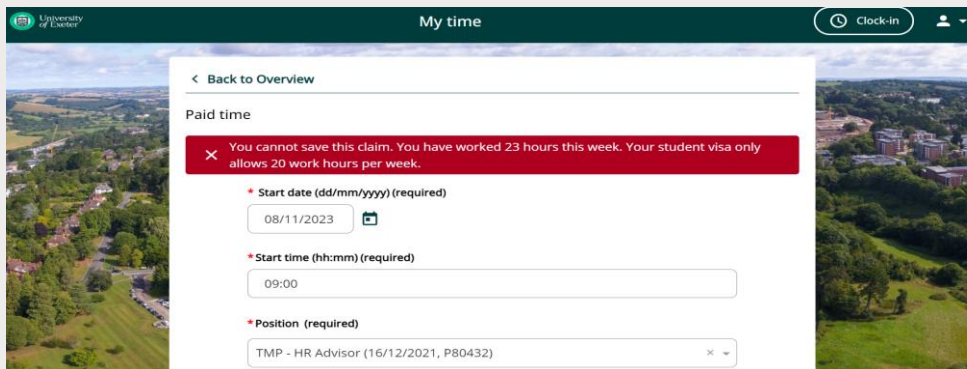

Reason – The reason you are claiming.

End date – The end date that you are claiming for.

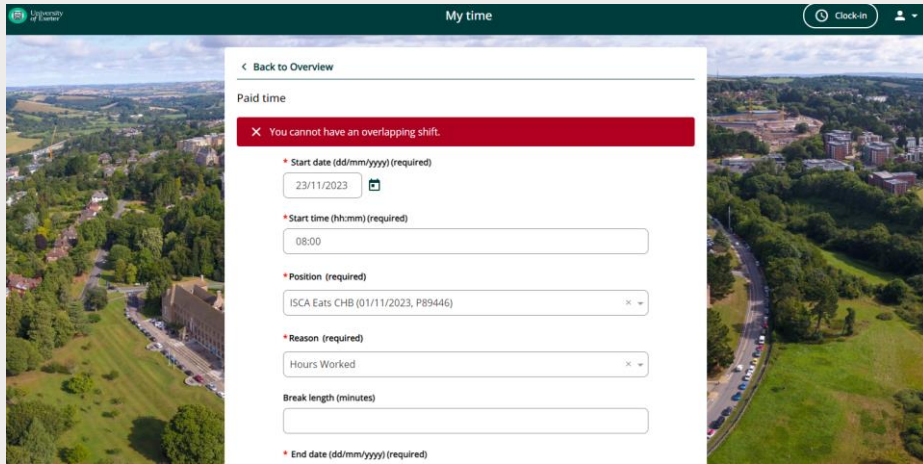

Please note based on your conditions of work iTrent will not allow you to input any hours worked over your entitlement and will advise you of this and not be saved.

For example - if your student visa only allows 20 hours of work and you try to claim for over this amount, the below warning will be shown.

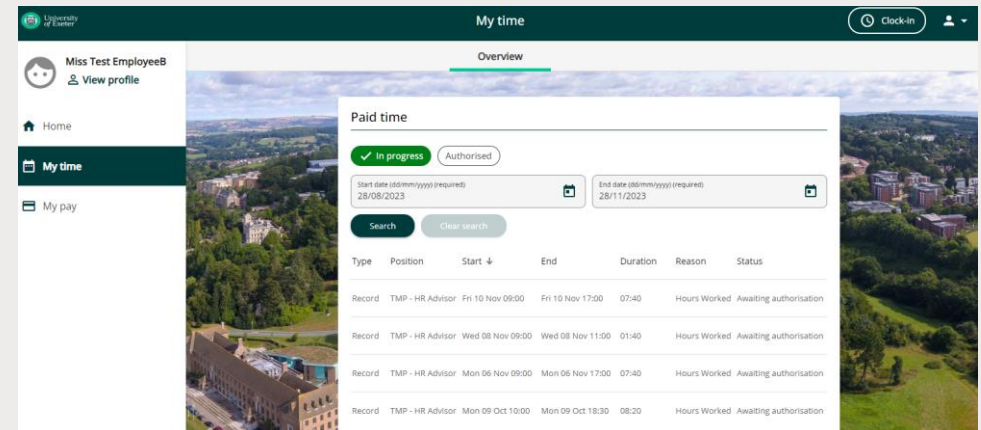

Should you try to claim for a shift that overlaps another shift that is being claimed for, the below warning will be shown.

iTrent will also advise you of how many hours you have left to claim should you have an amount left over based on your visa conditions, as shown below.

Should you need to edit your paid time this can be done right up until it is authorised by your line manager.

Click on the “record” button for the hours that you want to change, indicated below.

This will take you into the paid time where you can edit what is needed once this has been done click on the “save” button at the bottom of the page.

Please Note: Your paid time can take up to 3 days to be authorised.

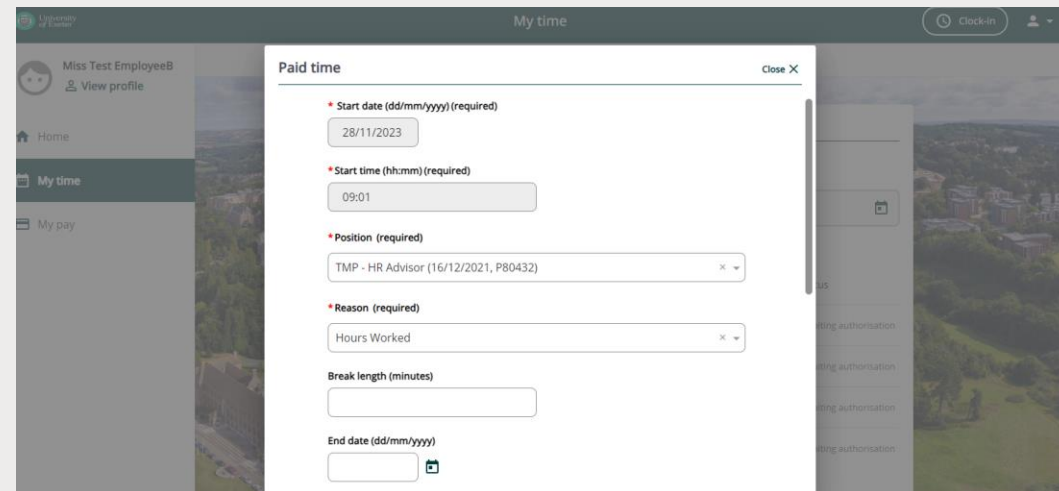

How do I clock in and out?

From the home screen, click on the “clock in” button in the right-hand corner, as indicated below.

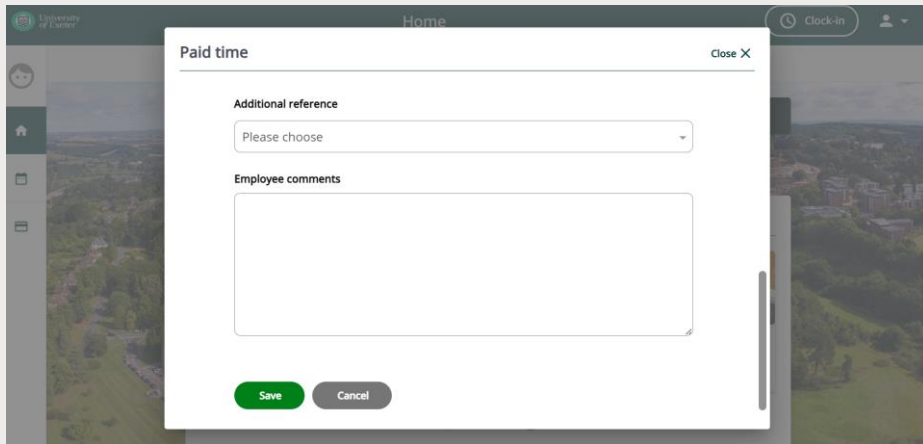

You will be taken to the paid time screen and some criteria will automatically be filled, start date, and start time.

You will need to fill in the position that you are claiming and the reason.

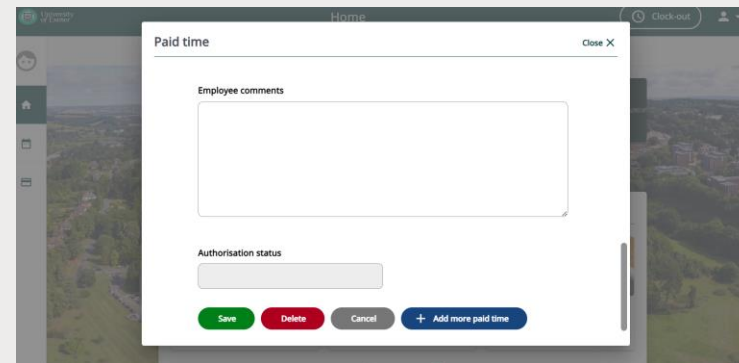

Click on the save button at the bottom of the page.

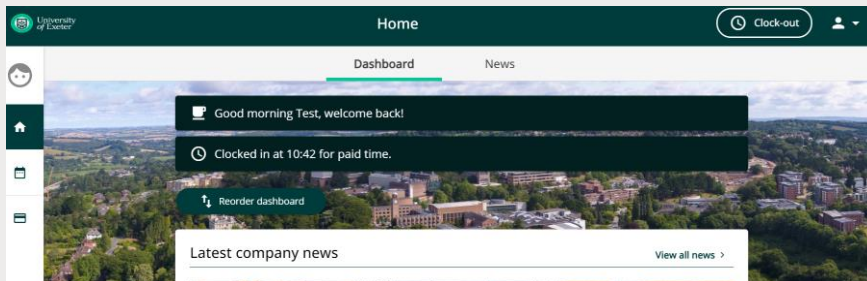

You will be taken to the paid time screen; the end date and end time will automatically be filled in with today's date and current time.

Any additional comments that you would like to add can be filled in in the employee comments at the bottom of the page, then click save to submit the hours worked.

You will be taken back to the home screen where the “clock in” button will have changed to “clock out”.

The time that you clocked in will be shown on your dashboard.

Please remember at the end of your shift to click on the “clock out” button in the right-hand side of the screen.

Changes will be saved, close the screen at the top and you will be taken back to the home screen.

If there is an issue with your claim after it has been authorised, you will need to contact your manager directly as it cannot be edited or changed in Paid Time once it has been authorised.

Please note it is advisable that you submit your paid time daily to ensure consistency and prevent a backlog of your hours. By doing this it will ensure also that you are paid on time and within the payroll deadline.
