However, the following exceptions apply for one year of study (2026/27 academic year): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Applicants eligible for an award under this University of Exeter Postgraduate Taught Scholarships 2026/27 scheme who are joining through an institutional progression agreement where a partial tuition fee discount is applied can receive both discounts, subject to a maximum award value of £10,000. • Applicants eligible for an award under this University of Exeter Postgraduate Taught Scholarships 2026/27 scheme can receive this together with an Exeter Excellence Scholarships 2026/27 - Postgraduate Taught scheme award, subject to a maximum award value of £10,000.

7. Award payment

If you defer your 2026/27 offer or change fee status, then your scholarship offer will be invalidated.

If you transfer to an ineligible programme, then your scholarship offer will be invalidated.

This scholarship will be awarded as a reduction in tuition fees; it cannot be paid as cash or attributed to other charges such as accommodation fees. It will be automatically deducted from your first-year tuition fees following enrolment. If you choose to pay your tuition fees in instalments, the award will be deducted from the total annual tuition fee and the remaining balance split accordingly.

Tuition fees deduction/s due are applied to your student account and show in your online statement within the first four weeks of study. Any awardees studying part time (under the relevant visa regulations) will receive the full Scholarship deduction in their first year. Where multiple awards have been offered, in line with the relevant exclusions and exceptions, ineligible scholarships may be removed during the first term of study.

In the event that you withdraw or interrupt your studies post enrolment then the University Finance regulations at that date will apply as regards any repayment, subsequent adjustments to fees or other requirements:
