

University of Exeter

International Women's Day
Faculty of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences

Monday 2nd March 2025, 14:00–17:00

Location: RS2, Roborough and The Old Library (Bill Douglas Museum)

---

Event schedule

14:00 – Doors Open, RS2 Roborough

Drinks on arrival

Exhibition: International Women's Day – 'Give to Gain'

Stands:

- Women's Creative Identities – Professor Tricia Zakreski
- A New History of Women's Work – Professor Jane Whittle
- Lady Aileen Fox (1907–2005): pioneering Exeter archaeologist – Dr Susan Greaney
- Women's History in the University Library's Special Collections – Annie Price
- Discover Women's Screen Work – Professor Helen Hanson
- What does a popular feminist film or TV series look like? – Professor Danielle Hipkins
- Gendering Kurdish History: Unearthing Lost Women's Voices in the Archives – Dr Farangis Ghaderi
- Women's Experiences of Infertility and their Modern Relevance – Professor Catherine Rider
- Honouring Female Colleagues in HASS – a virtual gallery

14:30–14:35 – Welcome and Introduction

By Professor Helen Berry

14:35–15:30 – Panel Discussion – Sharing Biographies / Empowering Experiences

- Professor Adam Watt – Chair
- Professor Ulrike Zitzlsperger
- Dr Emily Lygo
- Associate Professor Katie Brown
- Associate Professor Helen Vassallo
- Dr Eliana Maestri
- Associate Professor Helena Taylor
- Dr Susan Greaney

15:30-16:25 - Women, Work, Inclusion: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives

- Professor Helen Berry - Chair
- Professor Jane Whittle
- Professor Naomi Sykes
- Dr Kate Goldie Townsend
- Professor Kate Newey

16:30 - Close

Close by Professor Adam Watt