

Investing in talent

The University of Exeter is actively promoting and supporting the professional development and recognition of our technical and scientific staff through professional registration.

Registration formally recognises previous experience and demonstrates commitment to continued professional development.

Find out more on the Technical Services website:
exeter.ac.uk/departments/technicalservices/

The Science Council advances professionalism in UK science, for the benefit of society.

sciencecouncil.org

RSciTech
Registered
Science Technician

RSci
Registered
Scientist

CSci
Chartered
Scientist